

when other official duties will permit, and report at the end of the year, to the commander-in-chief.

Times for parade.

18. Every regiment, battalion, squadron or independent company of the national guard shall parade for the purpose of discipline, inspection and review at least four times in each year between the first day of May and the first day of December on such day and at such places as the commanding officers thereof respectively may designate; brigade and division parades will be ordered from time to time by their respective commanders; a camp of instruction will be ordered once in each year in each of the division or brigade districts, as the commander-in-chief may direct, and between the first day of May and the first day of October for a period of not over five days, and in case suitable ground cannot be found in any districts for said camp the same may be held in an adjoining district.

Camps of instruction.

Fines and forfeitures.

19. Every person called on to be enrolled who shall refuse to declare his true name and age to the best of his knowledge, or the name of any person an inhabitant of his house with which he is acquainted, shall for each offence forfeit and pay the sum of five dollars, to be recovered by order and upon the certificate of the proper officer as other fines and forfeitures are hereby directed to be recovered.

Physician's certificate of disability.

20. No person shall be excused from militia duty on account of corporeal infirmity unless he shall obtain from the surgeon of his military district, if any, or if none, from such respectable physician of the neighborhood or county to which he belongs as the commanding officer of the district may name, a certificate of such inability and the same be endorsed by the said commanding officer.

Term of service.

21. Every commissioned and non-commissioned officer and soldier of the national guard shall be held to service therein for the term of three years, unless he shall sooner arrive at the age of forty-five years or be disabled or discharged, and thereafter, he shall be entitled to a certificate of such service from the