

of this article and of seizing an canoe, boat or vessel engaged therein; and all such owners and masters are hereby vested with power to summon the posse comitatus to aid in making such arrest and seizure as fully as are constables and sheriffs of the several counties and city of Baltimore.

Ibid s. 12.
Justices to issue warrant.

12. Upon information given upon oath to any justice of the peace having jurisdiction of any violation of any of the provisions of this article, the said justice of the peace shall issue his warrant for the arrest of the offender or offenders, and the seizure of the canoe, boat or vessel, together with the tackle, apparel and other property on board, which warrant shall be directed to the sheriff or any constable of the county, or to the owner or master of any canoe, boat or vessel licensed under this article.

Ibid s 13.
Authority to seize boat, &c.

13. If any person or persons on board any canoe, boat or vessel, engaged in violating any of the provisions of this article shall fly to avoid arrest, the officer endeavoring to make such arrest shall seize such canoe, boat or vessel, and the same proceedings shall thereupon be had as directed in all cases of seizure under other sections of this article.

Ibid. s 14.
Penalty for resisting.

14. Any person resisting an officer or other person authorized to make arrest and seizure under this article, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon indictment and conviction thereof in any court of competent jurisdiction, shall pay a fine of not less than fifty, nor more than five hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in the county jail where the offence may be tried, not less than one month nor more than one year.

Fine or imprisonment.

Ibid. s 15.
Who not allowed to take oysters in certain waters.

15. It shall be unlawful for any owners, masters, employee or other person to use or employ any boat or vessel licensed under the second section of this article, to take or catch oysters with scoops, scrapes, drag or dredge in taking or catching oysters in any river, creek, cove, inlet, bay or sound within the limits of any county of this state, nor on any oyster bed, bar. or rock, on or about Tally's point, Sandy