Compensation to state's attorney in removed cases

78. The judge of any of the said circuit courts, to which any cause or causes may be removed under the preceding sections, shall allow such compensation not exceeding the sum of forty dollars in any one case to the state's attorney, for his services in appearing to or trying said cause or causes, as the said judge may deem just and proper, said allowance not to exceed forty dollars in any one case, to be borne and paid by the county from which said causes may be removed, or by the city of Baltimore, as the case may be.

In force from March 23, 1865.

NOTE.—The act of 1864, c. 130, repeals the act of 1861, c. 97, which provided for the removal of equity causes in the Superior court and Circuit court of Baltimore city, from the one to the other of those courts. In force from March 7, 1864.

PROCESS.

1861, c. 69 adds the following:

1861, c. 60.
Process, how served when resisted

115. In all cases of civil process at law or in equity, or of any civil writ whatsoever, hereafter to be issued out of any court, or by any judge of this state, and directed to or against, or lawfully to be served upon any person whatsoever, wherein the service of such writ or process upon such person then being within the local jurisdiction of such court or judge, shall be prevented or resisted by threats, violence, intimidation or superior force on the part or behalf of such person; or the said person so liable to be served with such writ or process shall be within any fortress, or fortified place or building, or at any military post within said jurisdiction, and entrance thereto, or access therein to such person, shall be by order or on the behalf of such person refused, obstructed or prevented, so that the officer charged with the service of such writ or process shall be unable to serve the same, or cannot
