

Interest to be paid agricultural college.

How to be applied.

PROVISO.

State board of education, ex-
officio trustees

ary session, eighteen hundred and sixty-four, chapter ninety, the annual interest or income of said investment shall be regularly paid by him without diminution to the Maryland Agricultural College, and the leading object of said college shall be, without excluding other scientific and classical studies, and including military tactics, to teach such branches of learning as are related to agriculture and the mechanic arts, in order to promote the liberal and practical education of the industrial classes in the several pursuits and professions of life, and the money so to be received by the said college shall be applied to the objects enumerated in the said act of congress, and to no other purposes whatsoever, and the said college shall in all respects comply with the several requirements of the said act, as to making and recording experiments, and reporting the same as therein prescribed; provided, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to prohibit or preclude the general assembly, at any time hereafter, from making any other disposition of said funds, not inconsistent with the act of congress making said donation.

From and after the passage of this act, the state board of education shall be, ex-officio, members of the board of trustees of the said college.

In force from March 21, 1865. See hereinafter sec. 151.

1866, c. 53 enacts the following:

1866, c. 53, s. 1.
Payments to agricultural college

145. The treasurer upon the warrant of the comptroller, is hereby authorized and directed to pay to the board of trustees of the Maryland Agricultural College, the sum of forty-five thousand dollars, the said sum to be payable in three annual instalments, of fifteen thousand dollars each; the first of said instalments to be paid on the first day of April eighteen hundred and sixty-six, and the balance in two equal instalments on the first day of April,