

vice, and it shall be the duty of such officers of registration to visit the different regiments, camps and hospitals, or other posts where said soldiers may be, for the purpose of ascertaining and registering all such as shall or may be qualified to vote, and said officers of registration shall perform said duty in like manner as is required in other sections of this act, and shall return their books or list of registration for the different counties and the city of Baltimore to such officers of registration in said city and counties as the governor shall designate twenty days before any election, and it shall be the duty of the officers of registration, to whom such returns shall be made, to cause the names so returned to be registered in the several election districts or precincts of their respective counties or wards of the city of Baltimore in which said soldiers reside or are entitled to vote, and in addition to the per diem allowed by this article to officers of registration, they shall be allowed their necessary traveling expenses for the discharge of the duties imposed by this section.

Ibid s 17
Copy of lists of soldier voters.

29. It shall be the duty of said officers of registration, after having received the register of said soldiers, to furnish a certified copy of the duly qualified voters in such lists to the county commissioners of the several counties and the mayor of the city of Baltimore ten days before any election, to be by them transmitted to the judges appointed to take the votes of said soldiers as directed by law.

Ibid. s. 18.
Right of appeal
by the unregistered.

30. If any person shall deem himself aggrieved by the refusal of the officers of registration to register him as a qualified voter by reason of the decision of said officer that he has not the requisite qualifications of age, citizenship or residence, or is disqualified under the provisions of the third and fifth sections of the first article of the constitution or by the refusal to register him as a qualified voter for any other cause, or of the striking of his name from the list of qualified voters for any cause, he shall have the right to appeal from such decision or action to