

181. It shall be the duty of the comptroller as early as practicable, after he shall have received returns of the valuation and assessment of property in the several counties of the state and the city of Baltimore, as hereinbefore provided, to prepare a condensed statement exhibiting under appropriate heads the amount of such valuation in each of such counties and said city, and the aggregate amount of property assessed as aforesaid within this state, and report the same to the general assembly at its next session.

Ibid s. 29.
Comptroller to prepare statement and report to general assembly

182. If the county commissioners of any county or the mayor and city council of Baltimore, or the members of the appeal tax court or board of control and review, shall fail to execute any of the duties imposed on them by this act, each member of the body so failing shall be liable to indictment for such default, and shall forfeit a sum not exceeding five hundred dollars, but any member may protect himself from prosecution as aforesaid by giving immediate information of such default to the comptroller, who shall take such steps in regard to the matter as the case may require.

Ibid, s. 30.
Penalty against commissioners &c., for failure to perform duty.

183. Each assessor shall receive four dollars a day for every day he shall be actually engaged in the performance of his duties, to be paid by the respective counties and the city of Baltimore, and the mayor and city council of Baltimore shall also allow to each of the members of the board of control and review, for the services to be performed by them under this act, such compensation as they may deem just, which shall be paid by the said city.

Ibid s. 31.
Compensation of assessors, &c., how paid

184. All fines and forfeitures imposed by this act shall be recoverable by indictment in the circuit court of the proper county in which the person so offending may reside, or in the criminal court in Baltimore, if the person resides in that city, and one-half thereof shall be paid to the informer and the other half to the treasurer for the use of the state.

Ibid, s. 32.
Fines and forfeitures, how recovered.
