

BOND.

1867, c. 314 repeals and re-enacts section 4 of this article as follows :

1867, c. 314
Failure to give bond

Notice to be given governor his duty

Condition in bond filed after 1 January.

SEC. 4. If any sheriff in office, prior to the first day of any January last past, shall have failed at any time heretofore to give and offer for record the bond in the preceding section, required within ninety days after the said first day of January last past of his sheriffalty, it shall be the duty of the clerks of the circuit courts of the respective counties, or of the clerk of the superior court of Baltimore city, as the case may be, to give notice forthwith of such failure to the governor of the state, whose duty it shall be at once to require the Attorney general to institute the proper proceedings to vacate the office of said sheriff, and upon said vacation, to appoint a successor until the next general election. If the bond hereinbefore required should be filed within the ninety days hereinbefore named, but subsequent to the first day of January in any year, it shall, in addition to the provisions hereinbefore required, be so conditioned as to make the obligors in such bond responsible also for all official acts of said sheriff, committed or done by him from the said first day of January up to the date of the filing of the said bond, as well as thereafter.

In force from March 12, 1867.
