

for the county in which the party so executing the bond shall live, or the superior court of Baltimore city, if register of said city, and every register shall renew his bond on or before the thirty-first day of December, in every second year.

In force from August 5, 1861.

1862, c. 269 amends and re-enacts section 268 as follows:

268. Every register shall return to the comptroller on the first Monday of June and December in every year, a full and accurate account of all his fees, emoluments and receipts, and of all the expenses incident to his office, and such account shall be rendered under oath, and in such form, and shall be supported by such proofs as shall be prescribed by the comptroller; and every register shall render with his accounts of the expenses incident to his office a list of the clerks employed by him, stating the rate of compensation allowed to each, and the duties which they severally perform, and also an account of the sums paid for stationery, official or contingent expenses, fuel and other things, and stating the purposes for which said expenses are applied; and in the account of fees there shall be a separate statement of all those fees charged during the six months included in said account which at the date of said account remain uncollected.

1862, c. 269. Registers to make semi-annual reports of fees, &c., to comptroller.

List of clerks, &c.

In force from June 1, 1862. See Const. 1867, Art. III, sec. 45 and Art. XV, sec. 1.

SALES.

1865, c. 51 amends section 280 as follows:

280. In all cases where an executor may be authorized and directed to sell the real estate of a testator, such executor may sell and convey the same, and shall account therefor to the orphans' court of the county where he obtained letters, in the same manner that an executor is bound to account for the 1865, c. 51. Proceedings in orphans' courts on sales by executors under wills.