

sons who shall refuse or neglect to obey his orders, given in the execution of his said powers, shall pay and forfeit to this state the same fine that in the like case a person who should refuse or neglect to obey the orders of any harbor master within the said city, would by virtue of the ordinances of the city of Baltimore, pay and forfeit to the said city. He shall also be vested with the same powers in regard to the collection of wharfage and of fines and penalties as any harbor master within the said city.

In force from June 1, 1865.

---

ARTICLE XCVIII.

Wild Fowl.

13. When shooting, &c., partridges, woodcocks and pheasants unlawful. 15. Penalty.

1862, c. 43, amends and re-enacts sections 13 and 15 of this article as follows :

1862, c. 43.
When shooting, &c., partridges, wood-cocks and pheasants unlawful.

SEC. 13. No person shall trap, shoot, or, in any manner, catch or kill any partridges, between the fifteenth day of January and the twentieth of October, nor any woodcock, between the first day of February and the tenth day of June, nor any pheasants, between the first day of February and the twelfth day of August in each year.

Penalty.

15. Any person violating either of the preceding sections, shall pay a fine of five dollars, to be recovered before a justice of the peace of the county where the offence was committed, which fine shall be paid to the county commissioners for the county in which the case shall be tried, for the use of the common school fund.

In force from January 25, 1862.