

bawdy house or house of ill-fame, and all loose and suspected persons who shall live, reside in or resort to any such bawdy house, or house of ill-fame, by fine and imprisonment, such fine not to exceed fifty dollars and imprisonment not to exceed twenty days, and may pass all such other ordinances as they may deem proper for the welfare of said city; provided, Proviso that they shall not have power to close or alienate any public street or alley, or pledge the credit and faith of the city for any sum exceeding ten thousand dollars, without first submitting the question to the voters of said city, after twenty days public notice, and a majority of the legal voters assenting thereto.

34. For the purpose of introducing a supply of good soft water into the said city, the mayor and councilmen are hereby authorized to issue bonds of said city to an amount not exceeding sixty thousand dollars, to be denominated Cumberland water bonds, at an interest not exceeding six per cent. per annum, and to levy and collect a tax on the assessable property of said city to pay the interest on said bonds, and to provide a sinking fund for the redemption thereof. Ibid. s. 5. Power to issue water bonds and levy tax

35. For the purpose of putting said water works into operation, Joseph Shriver, V. A. Buckey, Alpheus Beall, Hopewell Hebb and J. B. H. Campbell, or a majority of them are hereby appointed commissioners with power, from time to time, to contract for, purchase, lease and hold for said corporation in fee simple, or for a term of years, any land, real estate, spring, brook, water and water course, and also the right to use and occupy forever or for a term of years any land, real estate, spring, brook or water course which they may conceive expedient and necessary for the purpose of conveying water into the said city for the use of the said city, and for the health and convenience of the inhabitants thereof, and also the right to enter, pass through from time to time as occasion may require, and to use and occupy the said lands through which they may deem Ibid. s. 6. Appointment of commissioners to introduce water into the city.