

1867, c. 276 repeals section 73 of said act of 1866, c. 47 and substitutes the following :

1867, c. 276
Limits of town

73. The bounds and limits of said town shall be as follows. Beginning at the north-east corner of Mrs. Dillion's stable, and running thence north eighteen degrees, west thirty-three perches ; north thirty-six degrees, west forty-six perches ; north sixty degrees, west thirty perches ; north thirty-three degrees, west sixty-four perches ; north thirty-nine degrees, west forty-eight perches ; south eighteen degrees, west seventy perches ; south twenty-six degrees, east one hundred perches ; south fifty-one degrees, west forty-eight perches ; south thirty and one-half degrees, east one hundred perches ; and then by a straight line to the beginning.

1866, c. 47 further enacts as follows :

1866, c. 47.
Election of mayor.

74. The free male white citizens of Frostburg of the age of twenty-one years and upwards, who have resided in said town for six months next preceding the election, shall, on the first Monday in June annually, at the council chamber in said town, elect one person residing therein, having real and personal property in said town to the value of three hundred dollars, mayor of Frostburg.

Of councilmen.

75. The persons qualified as required by the preceding section shall also, at the same time and place elect five persons, who shall have resided in said town one year next preceding said election, and who shall be assessed on the books of said town, as councilmen of said town.

Election in case of vacancy

76. In case of death, refusal to act, resignation or disqualification of the mayor or any of the councilmen, the councilmen or the remaining councilmen shall direct an election to be held to fill such vacancy, and the mayor and councilmen, or the councilmen in case of a vacancy in the office of mayor, shall give at least ten days notice of all election to be held for said town, by notices posted up in several of the most public places therein.

Notice.