published in some newspaper printed in the city of Cumberland, and notice posted in said town of the manner, time, place and terms of sale, sell the part or parts of said property, lot or lots so laid off, at public sale for cash, after deducting the expenses of advertising and sale and paying the sums levied as aforesaid, shall pay the balance if any over to the owner of the property so sold; and the guardian of an infant or infant owners shall have full power on behalf of his ward or wards to make application under this section, and the mayor and councilmen shall execute and deliver to the purchaser a deed of the property sold with the seal of the said town affixed, and it shall convey the title to the purchaser.

Fines, how recovered. 91. All fines, penalties, or forfeitures imposed by this charter, or any ordinance of said town may be recovered in the name of the mayor and councilmen of said town, before any justice of the peace as small debts, and shall be paid to the mayor and councilmen for the use of the town.

Driving carriage, &c, over pavement. 92. No person shall drive any carriage, wagon or vehicle of any description, or ride any horse upon or over the paved footway of the said town, under the Penalty. penalty of two dollars for every such offence; and any constable or the bailiff of said town, shall arrest any person so offending and take him before a justice of the peace, who upon proof of the offence, shall give judgment in the name of the state against the offender, upon which there shall be no supersedeas, and the fine shall be collected and paid to the mayor and councilmen for the use of said town; and the bailiff shall have the same power and receive the same fees as constables in Allegany county, for making arrests or serving any process for violation of the ordinances of said town.

<center>1867, c. 276 adds the following section:</center>

1867, c 276. Laying out, opening and extending streets, &c. 93. The mayor and councilmen shall have power to provide for laying out, opening and extending any street or alley within the town, which in their