

shall be one hundred and twenty-five dollars per annum; the said salary to be retained and paid out of the tolls collected on said road.

In force from first Monday of May, 1862.

Note—1867, c 271 provides for payment of out standing claims against the National Road under the Act of 1852, c 129.

OAKLAND.

1862, c. 250 adds the following sections:

1862, c 250, s 1
Incorporated

112. The inhabitants of the town of Oakland in Allegany county, are a body corporate by the name of the burgess and commissioners of Oakland, and by that name may have perpetual succession, may sue and be sued, and have and use a common seal.

Ibid. s. 2
Limits of town.

113. The limits of said town, shall begin at a stone marked eight hundred and forty-one, said stone being the beginning of military lot, number eight hundred and forty-one, and running thence north, sixty-seven degrees west one hundred perches, south twenty-three degrees west two hundred perches, south sixty-seven degrees east ten perches to the summit of the Hooppole ridge, thence with the summit of said ridge, south sixty-seven degrees, east one hundred and fifty perches; north twenty-three degrees, east one hundred and seventeen perches, thence to the place of beginning: the commissioners of the town may make such alterations in the corporate limits as they may deem proper, and cause the same to be surveyed, and the boundaries therof to be established and a record thereof to be filed amongst the records of the corporation.

Ibid. s. 3 Election of commissioners and burgess.

114. The male citizens of the town, twenty-one years of age, having resided therein six months, and any such citizen of this state who owns a house and lot in the town, shall on the first Monday in May eighteen hundred and sixty-two, and annually thereafter on the same day, elect four commissioners and a burgess for Oakland, to serve one year from the