Ibid s 9
Taxes, fines,
&c., how collected.

120. If any person shall refuse or neglect to pay any taxes, fines or forfeitures imposed upon them by any ordinance of said corporation, the said commissioners may collect the same in the same manner and with the same costs as small debts.

Ibid s 10
By-laws, &c.

121. The said commissioners may make all such by-laws and ordinances, not contrary to law, as they may deem expedient for the comfort, health, convenience and prosperity of the town and its inhabitants, for the prevention or removal of nuisances, preservation of health and suppression of vice and immorality within the town.

Ibid s. 11.
Paving foot-ways.

122. They may, by ordinances, direct all or any of the footways in said town to be laid out, levelled, mended and repaired, with materials they may think best, at the expense of the proprietors of the different lots before which such levelling and paving shall be done.

Ibid s 12.
Dogs taxed.

123. They may levy a tax on all dogs kept within the town and may collect the same as other taxes.

Ibid s 13
Burgess to be treasurer

To give bond.

124. The burgess shall be the treasurer of the corporation, and shall give bond to the corporation, with security to be approved by the commissioners, or a majority of them, in such penalty as they shall prescribe, conditioned for the faithful discharge of his duty as treasurer, and he shall receive and pay away all moneys that he shall be directed to receive and pay away by the ordinances of the commissioners.

Ibid s 14
Elections.

125. All elections shall be held and conducted as shall from time to time be directed by the by-laws of the corporation, not inconsistent with this charter.

Ibid s. 15.
How burgess
and other officers to qualify

126. The burgess shall qualify as directed by section six of article sixty-eight of the public general laws; the commissioners and all other officers of said corporation, before entering upon the duties of their respective offices, shall, before the burgess,
