

of this article, shall not be available for the purpose for which it was given, for a longer period than two days from its date.

In force from March 23, 1865.

1866, c. 144, s. 2 amends and re-enacts sections 59 and 60 as follows :

59. It shall be the duty of the sheriff of Anne Arundel county and his deputies, and of the constables of the city of Annapolis, to exercise the utmost vigilance in order to detect all violations of this article in relation to the sale of liquors to minors and others as forbidden by section fifty-five, and to report immediately any such violation to the judge of the circuit court for said county, who shall forthwith direct the offending party to be brought before him and shall require him to give adequate security for his appearance at the next term of said court and shall commit such party to jail in default of such security; and if any sheriff or constable shall neglect to report to the judge any such violation of the said section as soon as the same shall come to his knowledge, he shall be liable to a penalty of fifty dollars, for each case of such neglect, to be recovered by any person in the name of the state by action of debt in said court.

1866, c. 144, s. 2.
Duty of sheriff and constables in matter of sale of liquor to minors, &c

Penalty.

60. All fines imposed and collected under the provisions of section fifty-five of this article shall go, one-half to the informer (who is hereby made a competent witness,) and the other half shall be divided equally between the state's attorney and the sheriff or other officer who shall have made report in the case to the judge under the fifty-ninth section of this article.

Fines.

In force from February 6, 1866.

Note—1865 c. 39 repeals 1862, c. 44 relating to horses, cattle, sheep or hogs going at large within two miles of Annapolis, on the west side. 1866, c. 46 authorizes the Governor and the Comptroller and Treasurer to convey to the United States, the Government House and Grounds of this State, at Annapolis, and to procure other site and buildings in lieu thereof, and 1866, c. 68 cedes to the United States the jurisdiction over an addition to the site of the Naval School at Annapolis. 1867, c. 294 and 1867, c. 387 authorize the purchase or condemnation of lands at Annapolis, and in Anne Arundel County for the public use of the United States as part of the Naval Academy, and cede to the United States concurrent jurisdiction over such lands, and exempt the same from taxation