

SWINE.

1864, c. 395 adds the following:

195. It shall not be lawful for any person to allow swine to run at large in the fifth election district of Anne Arundel county. 1864, c. 395, s. 1. Not to run at large in the fifth election district.

196. Any person may impound any swine found going at large in the limits of said district, belonging to any inhabitant thereof, and the owner of such swine, on reclaiming the same shall pay at the rate of fifty cents per head for every twenty-four hours such swine may have been impounded, and any swine so impounded shall be advertised by notice in writing, set up at two of the most public places in the district. Ibid. s. 2. May be impounded. Pay for reclaiming same.

197. If any swine shall remain so impounded for five days after notice given as aforesaid, the party so impounding it may sell the same at public sale, after two days' notice as provided in the preceding section, for the payment of costs and expenses, including the said fifty cents per day. Ibid. s. 3. When impounder may sell.

198. All disputes arising between the owner of any swine and the person impounding them, shall be determined by a justice of the peace for said county, who may summon witnesses and decide the matter in controversy. Ibid. s. 4. Disputes between impounder and owner, how determined.

In force from April 1, 1864.
