

sioners of Baltimore county, and the trustees of the poor of Baltimore city.

3. For the purpose of enabling said visitor to perform the duties prescribed by this act, he shall be allowed free access to all the books and accounts of said institution which in anywise appertain to the property and paupers aforesaid. Ibid. s 3. To have access to books.

4. Said visitor shall be allowed a salary of one hundred and fifty dollars per annum, payable quarterly, and he shall be allowed the sum of fifty dollars for like services performed during the years eighteen hundred and sixty-two and three, by and under the appointment of the county commissioners aforesaid. Ibid s 4. Salary.

In force from March 8, 1864. See 1862, c. 279, under Almshouse, Art. IV, City of Baltimore, Public Local Laws.

CALVERTON.

1862, c. 252 enacts the following:

5. It shall not be lawful for the clerk of the circuit court for Baltimore county, to issue a license to any person or persons to sell spirituous or fermented liquors or lager beer in the village of Calverton, or at any place nearer said village, than one-half a mile eastwardly from the intersection of Calverton and Bloomingdale turnpike, and within one mile and a half from said village, in every other direction. 1862, c. 252. Liquor not to be sold in or near village.

∴ In force from March 7, 1862.

COLLECTORS.

1862, c. 159, s. 2 repeals section 55 and substitutes the following:

55. Baltimore county shall be districted into eleven collection districts: the first and thirteenth election districts shall compose the first collection district; the second election district shall compose the second collection district; the third election district shall compose the third collection district; the fourth election district shall compose the fourth 1862, c 159, s. 2. Collection districts.