

1865, c. 96, s. 3 enacts the following :

56. The county commissioners for said county are authorized and empowered to remove from the office of collector in any of the districts aforesaid, any collector, who in their judgment has failed to perform the duties of said office faithfully and efficiently, and to appoint another in his stead, who shall be required to give bond in the same manner as the other collectors.

1865, c. 96, s. 3.
When collector may be removed.

In force from February 25, 1865.

1862, c. 159, s. 4 repeals section 57 and substitutes the following :

57. The commission as compensation to said collectors for the collection of said taxes, shall be as follows: six per centum for the first, second, seventh, tenth and eleventh collection districts; five per centum for the third, fourth, eighth and ninth collection districts; seven per centum for the fifth and sixth collection districts, upon all sums collected and paid over, and it shall be the duty of the county commissioners to levy for the said commission in the general levy of state and county taxes; said commissions to be estimated upon the whole amount to be placed in the hands of each collector.

1862, c. 159, s. 4.
Collectors' commissions.

In force from February 20, 1862.

NOTE—See the Act of 1866, c. 157 under Public General Laws, Art LXXXI, Revenue and Taxes

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

1865, c. 96, s. 1 repeals section 65 and re-enacts the same as follows :

65. They shall levy the state and county taxes for said county, on or before the first day of May in each year.

1865, c. 96, s. 1
Levy for taxes

In force from February 25, 1865.