

Proviso provided, that his powers, duties and compensation shall be limited to cases in which the city court of Baltimore has jurisdiction under this act, and he shall enter into bond to the state in the penalty of twenty thousand dollars conditioned for the faithful discharge of his duties, with security to be approved by the judge of the city court of Baltimore aforesaid.

His bond.

Ibid. s. 6.
Terms.

176. The regular and stated terms for the sitting of the aforesaid city court shall be the same as those of the court of common pleas of Baltimore city.

Removal of causes.

177. The judge of the criminal court of Baltimore shall order and direct the record of proceedings in any presentment or indictment now or hereafter pending in said court to be transmitted to the said city court of Baltimore whenever any party to said cause, or any one in his, her or their behalf, shall make oath and by suggestion in writing demand such removal on the ground that in his, her or their judgment a fair and impartial trial cannot be had in said criminal court of Baltimore, and the trial of said cause so removed shall proceed in said city court, and the said cause be heard and determined in like manner as if such presentments or indictments were being heard and tried in the criminal court aforesaid.

1867, c. 401 further provides that an election for Judge of the City Court aforesaid and of a Clerk of the same court shall be held on the first Wednesday of May, eighteen hundred and sixty-seven, by the qualified voters of the said city. In force from March 22, 1867.

NOTE.—For the jurisdiction of the Baltimore City Court as now established, see Const 1867, Art. IV, Part IV, sec. 28, and Art. IV, Part IV, sec. 37, &c.
