

ter or owner of the obstructing vessel to the master or owner of the passing vessel, unless in cases where some unavoidable casualty or accident may make it impracticable to remove said obstructing vessel, and if a vessel when moving to make room for another be obstructed by any vessel, the master or owner of such obstructing vessel shall forfeit five dollars for such obstruction, and at the rate of five dollars per hour during the continuance of such obstruction, to be recovered by the master or owner of the passing vessel aforesaid. Penalty.

196. No vessel shall enter Smith's dock, Union dock or Frederick street dock, without first ascertaining whether there is a vacant place at the wharf where she can lie, under a penalty of five dollars. Vacant place. Penalty.

197. All vessels which shall be found obstructing the passage of said docks, shall remove when requested by the master or agent of the passing vessel in such manner as will afford a free and unobstructed passage to such passing vessel, under a penalty of five dollars for refusal to remove, and five dollars per hour for each hour they shall obstruct such passage after due notice shall have been given to the master, owner or person in charge of such obstructing vessel. Vessel obstructing passage to make room. Penalty.

In force from February 8, 1866.

ELECTIONS.

1867, c. 38 entitled an act to repeal sections 4, 7, 15, 16 and 20 of this article relating to the qualification of electors and regulating the time for holding elections for Mayor and members of the City Council and the terms of, and the time for entering upon the duties of said offices and to re-enact the same with amendments, is repealed by 1867, c. 3 and also by 1867, c. 141, which latter act also repeals 1867, c. 2, entitled an act to repeal section 227 of this article relating to elections in Baltimore city, and to re-enact the same with amendments. These various repeals, at the same session, were authorized by 1867, c. 69. The said act of 1867, c. 141 further repeals sections 213 and 222 and re-enacts said sections 213, 222 and also 227 as follows:

213. Each of the said judges as soon as may be after his appointment and after the passage of this act, and before proceeding to act at any election 1867, c. 141, s. 2. Oath of judges of election
