

other fish whatever, other than for his family use; nor shall he directly or indirectly be concerned in making, rendering or furnishing any cask or casks for the purpose of packing, re-packing or curing any fish brought to, packed in or exported from the city of Baltimore; nor shall he be concerned in the cooerage of any cask containing fish that may be inspected in said city; nor shall he sell or furnish any salt for the curing or salting of any fish that shall be inspected in said city, under the penalty of forfeiting and paying for every offence five dollars. Penalty.

310. If the inspector shall charge or receive any Overcharging.
 greater fee or reward for inspection than is allowed by this article, he shall forfeit and pay the sum of Penalty.
 fifty dollars, to be adjudged on indictment and conviction in the criminal court of Baltimore, one-half to the informer and the other half to the use of the state.

311. It shall be the duty of the inspector promptly Inspector to to obey any notice he may receive requiring his at- attend in city. tendance in any place in said city, and should he refuse to attend after receiving such notice for the space of four hours, he shall be liable to a fine of Penalty.
 ten dollars.

312. All fines and forfeitures herein imposed, Fines and for-except as hereinbefore provided, if over one hun- feitures, how dred dollars, shall be recoverable by suit in the recovered.
 name of the state, in the criminal court of Baltimore, and if under one hundred dollars, before a justice of the peace, one-half to the informer and the other half to the use of the state.

In force from June 1, 1865.

FLOUR.

1862, c. 254 adds the following:

313. Each and every barrel and each and every 1862, c. 254 s. 1.
 half barrel of wheat flour, of rye flour and of corn When flour, &c meal, which shall be offered for sale in the city of to be inspected.