

amount for which the same was sold and the warehouse charges to which it was liable.

525. If any person shall, within one year from the date of any sale referred to in the last two preceding sections, satisfy the comptroller that he is rightfully entitled to the proceeds of any such sale, the comptroller shall draw his warrant on the treasurer in favor of such person for the principal sum which shall have been received and paid into the treasury therefor.

Ibid s 31.
Owner to be refunded.

526. When so large an amount of tobacco accumulates in any one warehouse as to delay or interfere with inspections, the inspector in charge of said warehouse shall remove to some other proper and safe place so much of said inspected tobacco as shall be necessary to give room for that which is uninspected, the necessary cost of such removal to be charged and accounted for as other expenses.

Ibid s 32
How tobacco removed in case of accumulation.

527. No inspector or other person appointed or employed in either of the tobacco warehouses in the city of Baltimore, shall allow any tobacco belonging to himself, or in which he is interested, to be taken for inspection to the warehouse to which he is appointed, or in which he is employed, under a penalty of twenty dollars for each offence; but tobacco raised by any one so appointed or employed, may be inspected as other tobacco at any other warehouse.

Ibid s 33.
Tobacco owned by inspectors, &c.

Penalty.

528. No inspector during his continuance in office, and no other person employed in either of the warehouses of the city of Baltimore, during the time of his employment, shall be engaged or interested, directly or indirectly, in the purchase or sale of any tobacco other than such as he may himself have raised, nor attempt to induce or influence the owner of any tobacco to consign the same to any particular agent or agents, or to send the same for inspection to one warehouse rather than another, under a penalty of dismissal from office or service, and a fine of one hundred dollars for each offence.

Ibid s 34.
Not to be engaged in purchase of tobacco.

Penalty.
