

God, made oath as follows, viz: I, C. D., chief clerk of A. B., tobacco inspector, have carefully read the above oath made by him, and swear on the Holy Evangely of Almighty God, that I believe the same to be true in letter and spirit."

Signed:—J. P.,
A. B.,
C. D.

538. The said inspector at the time of presenting the said account, shall pay to the comptroller, the excess of all receipts of his office over the disbursements thereof, and all payments so made, shall immediately be by the comptroller paid to the treasurer, and by the latter credited to the tobacco fund.

Ibid. s. 44.
Surplus receipts.

539. After the comptroller shall have examined and approved said account, the treasurer shall, on the warrant of the comptroller, pay to the said inspector out of the tobacco fund, his quarterly salary, at the rate of twenty-five hundred dollars per annum.

Ibid. s. 45.
Inspector's salaries.

540. The books of each warehouse shall be open to the inspection of any party who may have at the time, or shall have had previously any tobacco in said warehouse, and extracts from said books certified to by the chief clerk of any such warehouse, may be taken by said party if he so desire.

Ibid. s. 46.
Books open to inspection

541. Any of the fines, penalties, and forfeitures imposed upon tobacco inspectors, or their employees or upon any other person for violating the law for inspection of tobacco may be recovered by action of debt, to be instituted within one year after the commission of the offence charged in the name of the state, in any of the courts of the city of Baltimore, having jurisdiction of the amount without reference to the residence of the defendant, or at the option of the plaintiff, in any county where the defendant shall reside, and the clerk of any of the said courts shall direct such process to the sheriff of said city or county, and the return of said process by said sheriff

Ibid. s. 47.
Proceedings to recover fines
and forfeitures.