

the common law or the code of general laws of Maryland, with the cause of their commitment, and how many if any, were released, and by whom; and if any trial was had, and before whom; and the names of the witnesses if any, examined or present at the trial, and the place of their residence, and if any fine and costs were imposed, if so, how much and to whom paid.

822. No marshal of police, or any of the captains of any of the districts or station houses or any one acting for or under them, or any of them, shall release any persons committed or confined in any of the station houses for any felony or misdemeanor, but all such persons shall be released only on the order of the committing magistrate, the judge of the criminal court, or one of the members of the board, or other lawful process. Release of persons committed, &c.

823. That the said board of police commissioners are required on the requisition of the druid hill park commissioners to detail from time to time such number of the regular police force of said city as the said board may deem necessary for the preservation of order within the said park, which detailed force shall have the same power in the premises that the police force of the city have as conservators of the peace within the city limits. Park police.

824. Nothing in this act contained, shall be so construed as to destroy or diminish the liability or responsibility of the mayor and city council of Baltimore for any failure to discharge the duties and obligations of said mayor and city council or any of them, or give the said mayor and council any control over said board or any officer of police, policeman or detective appointed thereby. Responsibility, &c., of mayor, &c.

825. Nothing in this act shall be construed to prevent the present commissioners and their officers and men from continuing in the discharge of their duties as such until their successors shall be duly appointed and qualified. Succession