Trespass, kill-or injuring stock, damages
&c.

37. In all other cases of trespass by stock, the party trespassed upon shall be entitled to recover from the owner of the stock trespassing, the amount of damage done by such trespass, as other debts are now recovered; but if the party trespassed upon shall kill, maim or otherwise wilfully injure the stock trespassing, he shall forfeit his right to recover, but in case of prosecution for such killing or maiming, he shall be entitled to prove the amount of damage done by such stock, in mitigation of damages for the killing and maiming.

In force from June 1, 1862.

JURORS.

1861. c. 34 repeals section 31 and substitutes the following:

1861, c. 34
Pay.

31. Every juror summoned to the circuit court for Calvert county shall receive for each day he shall attend said court, the sum of one dollar and fifty cents.

In force from June 8, 1861.

NOTE.—This act provided the same pay as above for the bailiffs, but, so far, it is repealed by the act of 1867, c. 250, which provides a uniform pay for bailiffs throughout the counties of the State. See 1867, c. 250, under Public General Laws, Art. XXXVIII, Fees of Officers.

CONSTABLES.

1864, c. 75, which added a section relating to the fees of constables, is repealed by 1865, c. 67, continued in force by 1867, c. 375. See these acts under Public General Laws, Art. XXXVIII, Fees of Officers. They repeal all public local laws, relating to the fees of constables.

ROADS.

See the act of 1867, c. 290 relating to Public Roads, under Public General Laws, Art. XXVIII, County Commissioners.
