

the clerks of the circuit courts for said counties within ten days after the passage of this act and between the first of September, and the first of October in every second year thereafter, a fair and complete list of all the white male taxable inhabitants or residents of said county, whose names appear on the tax books of said county, and who are not known to said clerks to be under the age of twenty-five years nor above the age of seventy years: and to which said list, so to be made and filed, the said clerks respectively shall append a certificate that the said list is full and fairly made; and for making such list, the said clerks shall receive such compensation as the county commissioners may deem right and proper, and for failure to perform the duty hereby imposed the said clerks to the said commissioners shall forfeit and pay a fine to the state of not less than five hundred dollars, nor more than one thousand dollars, in the discretion of the court to be recovered by indictment as for a misdemeanor and the party upon conviction, shall be committed to the county jail, there to remain until said fine and all costs accrued, shall be fully paid; and he shall be thenceforth wholly incapable of holding or exercising the duties of the said office of clerk to the county commissioners.

List of white
male taxables.

Penalty for non-compliance.

18. It shall be the duty of the judges of the circuit courts for each of the counties of Washington, Frederick and Carroll, within twenty days of and not less than five days before the commencement of the several terms of the courts of said counties next succeeding the passage of this act, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, and within the period of one month of, and not less than twenty days before the commencement of each and every term of said courts thereafter, at which juries are required to attend, in the presence of such of the practising members of the bar of said courts as shall think proper to attend, notice of the time and place having been first given to said members of the bar, through the criers of said courts, to proceed to

Ibid. s. 2.
Duty of judges
of circuit
courts