

Selection from lists.

select from the lists last furnished by the clerks of the county commissioners provided for in the first section of this act, and from the poll-books of the several election districts of said counties that shall be returned to and filed in the clerks office of said courts, after any general election that may be last held previous to such selection, a panel to consist of the names of three hundred persons, to be fairly and impartially selected by the said judge with special reference to the intelligence, sobriety and integrity of such persons, and without the least reference to their political opinions; and of the names of such persons, when so selected, a list shall be made, and a certificate thereto appended by the said judges, that said list of names has been duly selected in conformity with, and according to the spirit and intent of this act; and which said lists and certificates shall be filed with the clerks of the said courts, and by them preserved as other proceedings of the said courts are kept.

Ibid s 3.
Duty of judges
in selecting jurors.

19. When said lists of names, selected as directed in the preceding section, is made and certified, as therein provided for, immediately thereupon the said judges of the said respective courts, in the presence of the members of the bar as aforesaid, and such other persons as may think proper to be present, shall cause all the names selected and placed on the list as aforesaid, to be legibly written upon ballots, which shall be of equal size, and of the same color and appearance, and shall be closely rolled or folded, and placed by the judge himself with his own hands, immediately before the drawing herein provided for, into a cubiform box with sliding top, of the square of eight inches, to be procured for that purpose by the clerk of said court, under the direction of the said judge; and after so depositing said ballots, the said box shall be closed, and the said judge shall then cause the clerk or one of his deputies whom the said judge shall designate, neither the one nor the other who may be so required

Drawing names
from ballot box.