

23. No terms of any of the courts aforesaid shall be held until juries therefor can be selected and summoned in accordance with the provisions of this act, and in case the terms now fixed by law for holding the regular terms of any of said courts shall arrive before juries may be summoned in accordance with the provisions of this act, it shall be the duty of the judges of said courts to discharge the juries which may have been summoned by the sheriffs of said courts, or any of them, without reference to this act, and to adjourn said term or terms for such time as may be requisite to enable juries to be selected and summoned according to the provisions of this act, and to direct a venire facias to issue for summoning the jurors who may be selected for such adjourned term or terms according to this act, and to fix the day on which said venire facias shall be returnable, and thereupon to proceed to hold said term or terms in the same manner and with the same effect as if the said term or terms had been held on the days now fixed by law, and the grand and petit juries so to be selected and summoned, shall be taken to all intents and purposes to be the proper and lawful grand and petit juries as fully as if the same had been selected and summoned prior to the regular days of holding the term or terms of said courts.

Ibid s 7.
No terms of court to be held till juries are summoned in accordance with act.

Venire facias to be issued.

In force from February 8, 1867.

NOTE.—See the act of 1867, c. 320, as to selecting, &c., jurors in the counties, under Public General Laws, Art L, Juries.

CONSTABLES.

1867, c. 110 enacts the following:

24. The commissioners of Carroll county, are authorized to appoint an additional constable for district number two in said county, to reside in the village or vicinity of Union bridge.

1867, c. 110.
Additional constable for district No. 2.

In force from March 5, 1867.