1866, c. 110 enacts the following:

1866, c 110, s. 1.
Voters to decide whether liquor may be sold in town.

43. The qualified voters residing in the town of Cecilton, in Cecil county, shall have the privilege of deciding by ballot, at the time for holding the next election for town commissioners of said town, and at the time for holding election for commissioners for said town each and every year thereafter, whether any license to sell spirituous or fermented liquors of any kind or description whatsoever, shall be granted or issued by the clerk of the circuit court for Cecil county, to any person to vend or sell the same within the limits of said town.

Ibid s 2
When license to sell liquor
may issue.

44. Should a majority of the votes cast at any election held as provided in the first section hereof, be unfavorable to the issuing of the said license, it shall not be lawful for the said clerk of the said circuit court to issue any license for the sale of spirituous or fermented liquors of any kind, within the limits of said town, until a majority of the qualified voters of said town, at some subsequent election held under the provisions of the said first section shall decide in favor of issuing licenses for the sale of spirituous and fermented liquors in said town.

In force from February 8, 1866.
