

190. The president of the said commissioners shall, ^{Ibid s 25} in virtue of his office, have and exercise within the ^{Power of presi-} limits of said town, all the jurisdiction and power of a justice of the peace, except as to the recovery of small debts; he may call on an officer of the village entrusted with the receipt and expenditure of public money, for a statement of his accounts as often as he shall see proper; he shall see that the ordinances are faithfully executed, and report to the board of commissioners, at their stated meetings, the general state of the village, and may call special meetings of the commissioners whenever he may see proper.

191. The county commissioners of Cecil county may, at discretion, levy annually upon the assessable property of the county, twenty-five dollars, and pay over to the commissioners, to aid in keeping the streets of said village, as part of the public roads, in good repair. ^{Ibid. s. 26.} County commissioners may levy for streets.

192. If the inhabitants of said village at any time neglect to make an election as herein directed, the power of electing commissioners shall not thereupon cease, but shall continue as though such election had been made, and the president and commissioners for the time being, shall remain in office until such annual election shall be held. ^{Ibid. s 27.} Failure to elect not to forfeit charter.

In force from June 1, 1862.

1867, c 301 adds the following:

193. The said president and commissioners may borrow, on the faith of the corporation, for the purpose of defraying the expenses of paving the streets and making sidewalks within the corporate limits of said village, any sum of money not exceeding five thousand dollars; and may issue bonds for the same, ^{1867, c. 301} bearing interest at the rate of six per centum per annum, and in such sums and payable at such times as the said president and commissioners may direct, ^{Power to borrow money to pave streets.} not exceeding twenty years. ^{To issue bonds.}

In force from March 12, 1867.