

227. If any person shall refuse or neglect to pay any tax, fine or forfeiture, imposed or inflicted by said corporation, the commissioners may collect the same by distress, as county charges are collected.

Ibid. s. 14.
When taxes,
&c., collectable
by distress, &c.

228. The said president and commissioners shall have power to establish the limits, width, and grades of the streets, lanes and alleys of the said town, and to remove all obstructions therefrom, and to open new streets, lanes and alleys therein, and if they cannot agree with the owner of the land necessary for that purpose, or if such owner be incompetent to contract, then such land may be condemned, in the manner herein prescribed for condemning streets in the town of Elkton.

Ibid. s. 15.
Power to open,
&c., streets.

229. The president and commissioners shall have power to provide for the payment of the damages and expenses of opening, dividing, laying out and grading streets, lanes and alleys in said town, by levying and assessing the same generally upon the whole of the assessable property of said town or specially upon the assessable property of persons benefitted thereby.

Ibid. s. 16.
Assessment for damages for opening streets

230. The county commissioners of Cecil county, may, at discretion, levy annually upon the assessable property of the county, and pay over to the said president and commissioners the sum of fifty dollars, to aid in keeping the streets of said town, as part of the public roads of the county in good repair.

Ibid. s. 17
County commissioners to levy street tax.

231. All taxes, fines, forfeitures and penalties, imposed by the said commissioners by virtue of any law or ordinance, shall be applied for the use of the said town, as may from time to time by ordinance be directed.

Ibid. s. 18.
Fines, &c., how applied.

In force from March 4, 1867.