

for election district number nine, two justices of the peace and one constable; for election district number ten, two justices of the peace and one constable; for election district number eleven, two justices of the peace and one constable; for election district number twelve, two justices of the peace and one constable; for election district number thirteen, two justices of the peace and one constable.

In force from August 7, 1861.

1864, c. 12 adds the following to section 124:

1864, c. 12.
Additional justices in district
No. 7.

124. In addition to the justices of the peace heretofore authorized by law in election district number seven, wherein the town of Cambridge is situate, there shall be one additional justice of the peace appointed by the Governor, who shall hold his office until the next regular election in this state. At the next regular election, and at every regular election thereafter, there shall be chosen by the qualified voters of district number seven, four justices of the peace, two of which shall be residents of the town of Cambridge.

In force from February 4, 1864.

1862, c. 168 repeals 1858, c. 235, s. 2 being an act to lay off and establish a new election district in Dorchester county, to be called election district number twelve, or Williamsburg district, and enacts the following section as a substitute therefor:

1862, c. 168
District No. 12
defined.

92. The boundaries of election district number twelve shall be as follows: beginning at the bridge on the main branch of the Nanticoke river, at Federalsburg, thence with the county road that separates Dorchester from Caroline county, to Hunting creek, thence with said creek to Choptank river, thence with said river to Blink Horn creek, thence with said creek to its head or until it intersects the county road leading from Cabin creek to Hunting creek, thence with the Manor line to Washington Chapel, thence with the aforesaid line and road that divides