

tions of ordinances passed under the provisions of this section.

Fines to be imposed.

159. In cases in which any person or persons shall be found guilty of violating any ordinance of the corporation of Frederick, it shall and may be lawful for the mayor or any justice of the peace, trying said cause, upon the conviction of the offender, to impose the fine prescribed by the particular ordinance under which said person or persons is or are tried, and upon failure or refusal of the party convict thereof to pay such fine and costs, to commit the person or persons convict, to the jail of Frederick county for the time prescribed by the said ordinance, unless the person convicted shall pay such fine and costs before the day limited in such commitment, in which case the mayor or justice of the peace shall issue his order to the sheriff to release said person or persons.

Imprisonment.

Minors not to visit bawdy houses.

160. The mayor, aldermen, and common council of Frederick, shall have full power and authority to pass all ordinances necessary and proper to prevent, restrain and prohibit all minors from frequenting or visiting any bawdy house or houses of ill-fame within the limits of the city of Frederick, and to provide for the punishment of the same.

Minors not to visit gambling houses.

161. The mayor, aldermen and common council of Frederick shall have full power and authority to pass all ordinances necessary and proper to prevent minors from frequenting or visiting any house or room within the corporate limits of the city of Frederick in which gambling of any species is carried on, and to provide for the punishment thereof.

In force from February 27, 1867.

JAIL.

See under Public Local Laws, Montgomery County, Art. XV., 1862, c. 6, relating to removal of prisoners from Montgomery county to Frederick county.

JURORS.

See under Public Local Laws, Art. VII, Carroll county, the act of 1867, c. 32, providing for the selection, drawing and summoning of jurors in Washington, Frederick and Carroll counties.