

of original manufacture or of a mixed character, <sup>Penalty for selling</sup> within the above described limits, shall on conviction be subject to all the fines and penalties prescribed by the public general laws for selling spirituous or fermented liquors without license.

In force from February 18, 1864.

SCHOOLS.

1862, c. 189 provides that the trustees of primary school district number seventy-two, in Frederick county, may insure the school house in said district, and the furniture thereof, against loss and damage by fire, in the Mutual Insurance Company of Frederick county, and pay the cost and charges therefor out of the primary school fund of said district. See the act of 1865, c. 160, Public General Laws, Public Instruction, by which all laws inconsistent therewith are repealed.

SHERIFF.

1865, c. 74 repeals s. 310 and enacts the following substitute therefor:

310. The sheriff of Frederick shall be entitled to <sup>1865, c. 74.</sup> fifty cents per day for boarding each prisoner committed to the county jail. <sub>Pay.</sub>

In force from March 21, 1865.

WOLFSSVILLE.

1866, c. 104 enacts the following:

311. The clerk of the circuit court of Frederick county shall not grant a license to any person to sell <sup>1866, c. 104.</sup> spirituous or fermented liquors of any kind at any <sub>License not to issue to sell liquor in or near village.</sub> place within three miles of either of the churches in the village of Wolfsville, Frederick county, and any person selling any spirituous or fermented liquors or any other kind of intoxicating drinks, whether of original manufacture or of a mixed character, within the above described limits, shall, on conviction, be subject to the same fines and punishments now prescribed by the public general laws for selling spirituous or fermented liquors without license. <sub>Penalty for selling.</sub>

In force from February 8, 1866.