

SCHOOLS.

1862, c. 146 repeals section 60 and substitutes the following :

1862, c. 146
Books and stationery.

60. They shall, from time to time, name such books as shall be used in the primary schools, and such books shall be uniform in the several schools; and the trustees of each school district shall appropriate out of the school funds of the district, a sum not exceeding thirty dollars a year, for the purchase of books and stationery, under the direction of said inspectors.

In force from February 25, 1862.

1862, c. 160 adds the following between sections 73 and 74 :

1862, c. 160.
Public examinations.

73. It shall be the duty of the trustees of each primary school in Howard county, to have a public examination of the scholars of such school at the school house, at least once in every year, which examination shall be attended by the said trustees and the progress of said schools as evinced by said examination, shall be reported to the inspectors of primary schools, to aid such inspectors in forming an opinion of the qualifications of the teachers of said schools, and the trustees shall report the fact that said examination has been held, to the commissioners of said county, as preliminary to drawing any money for the said school.

Reports of progress of pupils, &c

In force from March 7, 1862.

Note—See the act of 1865, c. 160, Public General Laws, Art. —, Public Instruction, by which all laws inconsistent therewith are repealed.

SHERIFF.

1866, c. 111 repeals section 74 of this article and substitutes the following :

1866, c. 111
Pay for keeping prisoners.

74. The sheriff of Howard county shall be allowed for keeping and boarding prisoners committed to the jail of said county, for breach of the peace, crimi-