ALMSHOUSE.

1867, c. 137 provides that the county commissioners of Kent county are authorized and empowered to have erected and built an almshouse for said county in the place of the building recently destroyed by fire, and to enter into contracts for the construction thereof, if they shall deem it advisable to do so, or have the same erected under the control and direction of the said county commissioners or a majority of them. That the county commissioners of Kent county are authorized and empowered to levy, on the assessable property of Kent county, a sum of money not exceeding the sum of three thousand dollars, for the purpose aforesaid, and that the said levy may be made in one or more years, at the discretion of the said county commissioners, who shall have power to borrow money for the said purpose, and to provide for the re-payment thereof, and interest, by levies upon the assessable property of Kent county aforesaid. 1866, c. 158 provides that the trustees of the almshouse in Kent county are authorized and empowered, for such consideration as they may deem proper, to convey by deed duly executed and acknowledged according to law, a part of the farm or tract of land in said county, known as the almshouse property, and described as follows: Beginning at a stone set on the lines of the land of the devisees of the late Samuel E. Baker and the said almshouse farm, and running thence north sixty-two degrees, west thirty-nine perches and nine-tenths of a perch, to lines of the land of the said Samuel E. Baker, thence with the said lands north forty-four degrees east ten perches and three-tenths of a perch, to a stone, thence with said lands and the camp-ground lot in a straight line to the beginning, containing one acre and twenty-four perches, to Thomas Baker, Joshua Clark, James Kendall, William W. Parks, Joseph A. Harper, John N. Usilton and Henry Bramble, and their successors forever, in trust to and for the use of the Methodist Episcopal Church on Kent circuit, for holding and conducting camp-meetings, sunday school meetings, festivals or other meetings, and for such other purposes as may be considered useful or advantageous to the said church, or for any other moral, religious or literary institutions of the said church, according to the provisions of the act of Assembly passed at December session, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, chapter seventy-two, entitled an act to appoint and authorize certain persons in Kent county to purchase real estate in Kent county, from Samuel E. Baker, of said county, to be held in trust for the Methodist Episcopal Church on Kent circuit, for the purpose of holding camp-meetings or other meetings on the same, sunday school festivals, and so forth.
