

of the said corporation shall be recoverable out of court, before any justice of the peace in said county.

Ibid. s. 9.
Limits of town.

165. The limits of said town shall be a square, whose sides shall measure five hundred yards each, and shall be marked out and bounded by the said commissioners, but shall not extend into Cecil county, the said lines to be recorded in the record books of said commissioners.

Ibid s. 10
Laws, regulations and ordinances.

166. The said commissioners, or a majority of them, shall have full power to make all such laws, regulations and ordinances not inconsistent with the laws of this state, as from time to time they may deem wise, equitable and expedient for the comfort, health, convenience and prosperity of said town and its inhabitants, for the prevention or removal of nuisances, preservation of health and suppression of vice and immorality within the limits of said town, and shall have power to lay an equal tax on the property, real and personal, within said limits to such an amount as may from time to time be deemed necessary to accomplish the purposes aforesaid; which tax shall be collected and paid to the president and commissioners by the collector by them appointed, who shall have the same power to distrain therefor and sell said distraint after five days' notice by public advertisement set up in said town; provided, that the tax shall not exceed twenty cents in the hundred dollars of the taxable property of said town for any one year, and the said commissioners shall fix the term of office, amount of bond and compensation of such collector.

Proviso.

Ibid s. 11.
Bailiffs, their duties and powers.

167. The said commissioners, or a majority of them, shall have full power and authority annually to appoint one or two bailiffs, whose duty it shall be to preserve the peace and good order of said town, and to perform such other duties as may be assigned him or them by said commissioners, or a majority of them, and for this purpose he or they are hereby vested with the same power and authority as any constable may now have under the laws of this state,