

ARTICLE XXIII.

Worcester County.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

40 Almshouse expenses to be published and how

41 Board of primary education to have access to books of county commissioners grand jury to examine books to report.

LUMBER INSPECTION AND WOOD CORDING

42 Governor to appoint inspectors and measurers of lumber, &c. their duties

43. Deductions to be made by inspectors

44. Inspectors' fees.

45. Inspectors' oath.

New-Towns.

46. Incorporated.

47 Election of commissioners.

48 First election

49 Future elections

50. President of board.

51 Meetings of commissioners

52 Clerk his duties.

53 Commissioners to make by-laws, ordinances, &c penalties remission of fines, &c.

54 Limits of town.

55 Ordinances, by-laws, &c.

56 Town bailiff his duties.

57. Straightening, &c., streets.

58. Corporation not to issue notes, &c., as a currency.

PARTIDGES.

59 Protected

60. Shooting, &c., at night prohibited.

61 Penalty.

ROADS.

62. County road from Delaware state line.

63. Right of way of road from Sandy Hill to Parker's bay wharf.

SCHOOLS.

64 Appropriation for building, &c., school-houses.

STATES' ATTORNEY.

65. His fees.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

1862, c. 266 adds the following to this article:

SEC. 40. The county commissioners of Worcester county shall cause to be published in some newspaper printed in Worcester county, for at least three successive weeks previous to the first Wednesday of November next, and so in like manner in each and every year thereafter, the annual statement and report of the trustees of the poor of Worcester county, which statement and report shall be made by the said trustees to the county commissioners aforesaid, at least two months before the time above named for its publication, and shall set forth all the receipts, with the sources from which they are severally derived, and the disbursement and expenditures of the said institution for the support of the almshouse and its inmates, with a statement of the sums allowed to its officers 1862, c. 266, s. 1.

Almshouse expenses to be published, and how.