32. The road supervisors may make such commu- Ibid. s 4.
Commutation tation of labor for teams and carts or wagons as they may deem proper.

33. Every person liable as aforesaid to labor on Ibid s 5 Penalty for non-compliance. said road who shall fail to obey the summons of the road supervisor or furnish a substitute shall, upon demand made by said supervisor, pay to said super- visor the sum of one dollar and fifty cents for each and every day he shall fail to perform such labor, and the said supervisor shall collect and account under oath to the county commissioners for all sums of money so collected, and shall apply the same under the directions of the said county commissioners, to hiring laborers to work on the public roads, and shall pay over to his successor, upon the order of the county commissioners, any surplus that may remain in his hands, and the said supervisor shall make a report once in three months of the money received and expended to the commissioners of the county.

34. Any person failing to obey such summons Ibid. s 6.
Declared guilty
of a misdemeanor made as aforesaid, and refusing upon demand made as aforesaid to pay to said supervisor said sum of one dollar and fifty cents shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall upon complaint made by such supervisor be liable to be arrested and brought before some justice of the peace of said county, upon a warrant to be by said justice issued in the name of the state therefor, and shall, upon proof of such summons and failure to obey the same and refusal to pay said sum of one dollar and fifty cents, be fined to an amount equal to said sum of one dollar and fifty cents, and all cost of such proceedings before said justice, including the pay for the witnesses for the prose- cution, and the said justice, in order to enforce the collection of said fine, shall have the power to issue an execution upon the judgment therefor and to make it a part of said judgment, and the party against whom any such judgment is rendered, shall stand committed to the county jail until such fine and cost be paid.