

peace, shall be fined not less than five nor more than ten dollars.

46. All laws or parts of laws inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed. Ibid s. 9 Inconsistent
laws.

In force from March 22, 1867.

PRIVATE ROADS.

1866, c. 105 repeals and re-enacts section 38 as follows:

38. Any owner or owners of a mill, factory, distillery, quarry or lime kiln, situated within one mile of any railroad, may apply to the county commissioners of the county to lay out and open a private road from each mill, factory, distillery, quarry or lime kilns, to the most convenient place for intersecting such railroad, and on such application the county commissioners shall proceed in the same manner and with the same powers as if such application were for a private road to a farm. 1866, c. 105.
Owner of mill,
etc., may apply
for opening
road.

In force from February 8, 1866.

DRAINING LANDS.

1867, c. 127 adds the following sections to this article, to be numbered 102, 103 and 104:

102. The commissioners appointed by the county commissioners to lay off any ditch, before proceeding to do so, shall give at least ten days notice of their intention to proceed with the execution of their commission, by advertisement set up at four of the most public places in the neighborhood of the proposed ditch, and no report shall be confirmed by the county commissioners without such notice shall be shown to have been given. 1867, c 127
Notice to be given of laying off ditch.

103. The county commissioners shall on their first meeting after receiving any return of proceedings of such ditch commissioners, appoint a day to hear Day appointed to hear objections.