

Sub-Sec. 10. If any person, within this state, shall attempt to seduce, entice or persuade any other person to commit any of the offences, which by the several sub-sections of this section are prohibited, though such offence has not been committed, and shall be convicted thereof, he shall be sentenced to confinement in the penitentiary for not less than two years, nor more than four years, or to a fine of not less than five hundred nor more than two thousand dollars, in the discretion of the court.

Sub-Sec. 11. The proceeds of all fines arising out of the execution of the provisions of this act, after all necessary expenses incurred upon their collection are paid, are hereby set apart and appropriated as a portion of the military fund for the relief of the families of the Maryland volunteers, residents of this state at the date of their enlistment.

Sub-Sec. 12. If any of the offences within described, shall have been committed before this act goes into operation, the same shall be punished according to the law existing at the time of the commission thereof.

Sub-Sec. 13. It shall be the duty of the judges of the courts having criminal jurisdiction within this state, to give this act in charge to the grand juries of their respective courts at every term of their court.

In force from April 15, 1862.

ARTICLE XXXI.

Crows.

This article is repealed by 1864, c. 250, so far as it relates to Allegeny and Calvert counties. In force from March 10, 1864.