

said cause had been made, upon which additional statements being made and filed, the cause shall be removed, notwithstanding the issues had been made up.

75. When any suit or action, issues, petitions, presentment or indictments shall be removed according to the provisions of the preceding section, it shall and may be lawful for the party at whose instance the said suit or action, issues or petition, presentment or indictment was not removed, if he, she or they shall think that justice cannot be done him, her or them in said court to which said suit or action, issues or petition, presentment or indictment has been removed, to file an affidavit as prescribed by the preceding section in said court to which said removal is ordered, suggesting that he, she or they cannot have justice in such court, whereupon the said court shall remove the said cause, suit or action, issues or petition, presentment or indictment, to such other court (and of a different circuit if the party applying shall so elect) having jurisdiction in such cases as the said court shall think will best tend to justice between the parties to the said suit or action, issues or petition, presentment or indictment.

76. It shall be in the power and discretion of the judge or judges, should he or they think it proper, to cause a special panel of forty-eight jurors to be selected by the sheriff from the community at large to try any cause or causes removed under the preceding sections of this act, and the court shall direct the clerk thereof to divide by ballot said number of jurors into two panels of petit jurors, and may take such order for regulating the attendance of said panels as the said court shall see fit, and the said court may direct talesmen to be summoned in said cause or causes whenever necessary.

77. In all criminal cases removed as aforesaid, where the party or parties to be tried therein are detained in jail, the party or parties so detained shall not be removed until the first day of the session of the court to which said case shall be removed.

78. The judge or judges of any of the said circuit courts to which any cause or causes may be removed
