

- Plans of school houses. 3. Every school house shall be built and furnished according to plans and drawings issued from the office of the principal of the state normal school, or according to plans issued from the board of county school commissioners, that proper regard may be had to light and ventilation, and other matters that conduce to the comfort, health and good order of the pupils.
- Out-buildings. 4. Every school house site must be provided with suitable out-buildings.
- How school houses to be used. 5. No school house shall be used for any other than public school purposes, and school district meetings.
- New districts. 6. Contiguous portions of two or more school house districts may, with the consent of the board of county school commissioners, combine and form a new school house district, and when thus formed, the said new school house district shall be invested with all the rights and powers hereinbefore set forth as pertaining to such districts; provided, that the new school house district thus formed, or said district from which it may be formed, shall not contain less than thirty-five legal resident voters.
- Proviso.

CHAPTER V.

School House Sites.

- District board to select sites; SEC. 1. It shall be the duty of the school district board, with the consent of the board of county school commissioners, to select a suitable school house site in each district whenever the necessities of the public schools demand a change of site or sites already built upon, or a new school house to be built.
- Gift, &c., of sites. 2. The board of county school commissioners may receive donations of such sites, or locations, for school houses, or of houses already built, adapted to school purposes, or suitably located, or may purchase the same; but in no case shall any site be built upon, or any house be occupied, until a good and sufficient title shall have been obtained for the same, in the corporate name of the board of county school commissioners.
- Title.