

Expelling, &c., pupils.

2. The school district board shall have power to suspend and expel pupils for cause.

Attendance in adjoining district.

3. Children living remote from the school of the district in which they reside, may attend school in an adjoining district, with the consent of the trustees of the respective school districts.

Certificate of vaccination.

4. Every child, before it is admitted to any public school, shall produce a certificate from a regular physician, that it has been regularly vaccinated.

CHAPTER IX.

Text Books.

Sectarian or partisan books.

SEC. 1. School books shall contain nothing of a sectarian or partisan character.

Purchase of text books.

2. Each board of county school commissioners shall purchase the text books for their respective counties, after having examined such as may be recommended by the board of trustees of the state normal school, whose duty is hereby made to present a list of books to said county boards with their written reasons for such recommendations.

Books and stationery.

3. They shall authorize the delivery of books and stationery to the various schools in the county upon the order of the commissioners of the election districts, or of the teachers, endorsed by a trustee of the school district; provided, that no pupil shall be required to pay more than one dollar per quarter for such use, and that any pupil may be exempted from payment in the discretion of the school district board.

Proviso.

Payment for books.

4. The board of county school commissioners shall keep an account of the books and stationery delivered to the several schools in their respective districts and file their receipts for the same.

Accounts of books, &c.

Exhibit of cost, &c., of text books to be published.

5. The board of county school commissioners shall publish annually in all the newspapers of the county an exhibit of the cost of the text books and the distribution thereof, and the money received therefor, from the several school house districts.