

or to be restored to the list as a qualified voter, he shall so certify to the officer of registration from whose decision the appeal was taken, and the said officer shall thereupon register the said person as a qualified voter and in that case the cost of said appeal shall be paid by the mayor and city council of Baltimore or the county commissioners of the county in which the appeal was taken.

Ibid s 15.
Powers of registers

26. Whilst discharging the duties imposed by the several sections of this article, said officers of registration shall have and exercise the powers of a justice of the peace for the preservation of order around the place of registration; may compel the presence of witnesses for the purpose of obtaining any information necessary to an intelligent discharge of the duties of their office; they shall have power to issue summons, attachments and commitments to any sheriff or constable, who shall serve such process as if issued by a judge of a court or a justice of the peace, and shall receive the same fees and in the same manner as are allowed by law in state cases; but the officers of registration shall not charge any fee for the issuing of such process or receive any fees or emoluments for this or any other service they may perform in the proper discharge of their duties, except that provided in this article.

Issue commitments, &c.

Fees.

Ibid s 16
Duty of police of Baltimore

27. The board of police commissioners for Baltimore city shall cause every police officer in Baltimore city to report to the commissioners of police the name, late residence and occupation of every male adult known to said police officer to have died within the limits of his beat, and the name, occupation and late residence of every male adult known to him to have removed from his beat, and whether said adult has removed beyond the limit of the precinct of which his beat forms a part; and said police commissioners shall cause an alphabetical list to be made of the names, residence and occupation of said adult, according to precinct, and deliver to the officers of registration for each precinct respectively, on or before the first day of the sitting of

Lists of names,
&c.