

incorporated and empowered to sue and be sued, and whose duty it shall be to bring suit in the event of Suit. the forfeiture of the penalty of any of the said boards, on the petition of any one of the primary districts, the amount recovered to be paid over immediately to the local board of the district for whose benefit the suit was brought.

Sub-Sec. 2. The supervisors of the district, and con- Powers of supervisors tractors under them, shall have the right of going upon adjoining lands for material or for the purpose of drainage, the district being liable in all cases for actual damage done to the owners of lands by such encroachment, the amount to be determined by the local boards, with appeal to the central board in case of any party feeling Appeal. aggrieved by the decision of the local boards.

Sub-Sec. 3. In all cases the warrant of the central Payment of money due, time allowed. board upon the local boards for the payment of any money adjudged to be due from the district they represent, shall be paid within sixty days thereafter, and if not so paid, the central board shall be entitled to levy a tax on and collect from said district, to the amount Tax. required to discharge said sum adjudged, and all costs incurred in the collection thereof, and no claim for damages shall vest in any contractor under this act if the legislature shall alter or repeal this law.

Sub-Sec. 4. Whenever any person shall desire the Application for new road, how made. opening of a new road, to which they may deem themselves entitled, he or they may make application by petition to the local board of such district as the proposed road will traverse, and it shall be the duty of Duty of local board. the said board to visit and examine the locality and determine upon the propriety of granting the said road, and shall proceed to assess the expense therefor upon the parties interested and the districts respectively in such proportion as they may deem just and proper.

Sub-Sec. 5. Whenever there shall be insufficient Certificates of payment. money in the treasury of any district to meet the requirements of this law for immediate expenses of construction or repair, it shall be the duty of the supervisors of said district to provide the money by issuing