

shall be paid for their services by said commissioners, out of the taxes levied as aforesaid.

58. Any person may appeal from the assessment of ^{Appeal from assessments.} the assessors to the said commissioners, who may make such deductions therefrom as they may deem just, and they may add thereto the value of any property which may have been omitted in the assessment, and all buildings and improvements, and all property created or acquired since said assessment, and make transfers of such property as has changed owners since said assessment.

59. The commissioners may, from time to time, ^{Town officers.} under such conditions as they may by their ordinances direct, appoint such officers as they may deem necessary to carry into effect their ordinances, among whom shall be a town bailiff, who shall ex-officio be collector of the town tax, and shall, within said town, have all the authority of a constable.

60. The said bailiff shall give bond, to be approved ^{Bailiff.} by the county commissioners as other constables, for the faithful performance of his duty as constable, and also bond to the commissioners of the said town, for the faithful performance of his duty as town bailiff, and as collector of the town tax, and the faithful performance of such duties as shall be imposed on him by the ordinances of said commissioners; and if said bailiff shall wilfully fail to discharge any duty of his office, he may be fined, at the discretion of the commissioners, not exceeding ten dollars for any one offence.

61. The said bailiff may enforce the payment of ^{Town taxes} town taxes, in the same manner and with the like effect as collectors of state and county taxes, may enforce the payment of state and county taxes.

62. The commissioners shall have power to make ^{Drains and sewers} and keep in repair all requisite drains and sewers, and to make regulations for keeping them open, and if any person or persons shall wilfully stop or obstruct the passage of water through any such drains or sewers, he or they shall be subject to a fine of ten dollars and the costs of putting such drains or sewers in order.
