

14. The commissioners and all other officers of the corporation shall, before they enter upon the duties of their office, take an oath before a justice of the peace that they will diligently and faithfully, to the best of their judgment, discharge the duties of their office without favor, partiality or prejudice, and shall file the certificate of the officer before whom the same was taken, among the records of the corporation.

Ibid. s. 14
Oath of commissioners and corporation officers.

15. The clerk and bailiff shall give a bond, payable to the commissioners, in such penalty and with such security as the commissioners may require, conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of the office of bailiff or clerk.

Ibid. s. 15.
Bond of clerk and bailiff.

16. The commissioners may pass such ordinances, not contrary to law, as they may deem beneficial to the town, may open and close streets, straighten, widen and improve the same, grade and pave the same, restrain all disorders and disturbances, apprehend and fine all vagabonds, and may impose fines, penalties and forfeitures for the violation of their ordinances.

Ibid. s. 16.
Powers of commissioners.
