20. That it shall be the duty of the justice of the peace when committing a vagrant or incorrigible or vicious minor under this Article, in addition to the commitment to annex the names and residences of the different witnesses examined before him, and the substance of the testimony given by them respectively, on which the adjudication was founded, and the same duty shall be performed by the clerk of any court, the judge whereof shall make such commitment.

21. That whenever any colored minor under the age of sixteen years, shall be convicted of any felony in any court of this state, the judge of said court, in his discretion, and with reference to the character of the house of reformation and instruction as a place of sojourn, and not of punishment, may order said minors so convicted to be removed to and confined in the said house of reformation and instruction; provided, that in all cases no transfer of any such minor from the counties shall be made until due notice has been given to the superintendent of said house of reformation and instruction, and an answer received from him, that there is room in the house of reformation and instruction for the reception of such delinquent.

Approved and in force April 4, 1870.

Section 2 of the Act of 1870, c. 391 adds the following section to the Act of 1866, c. 156, entitled an Act to establish the Maryland industrial school for girls.
