1870, c. 73 repeals and re-enacts section 45 as follows:

45. Every collector of state taxes, except the collec- 1870, c 73 tor of state taxes in the city of Baltimore, shall account At what times collectors to for and pay to the treasurer, two-thirds thereof on the make payment. first of January annually, and the remaining third on the first of April thereafter; and whenever the mayor and city council of Baltimore shall have placed the collection of state taxes in the hands of the city collector, and said city collector shall die, resign his office or be Provisions in removed therefrom, or his term of office as city collector, case of death, &c, of collector
[shall expire] immediately upon his death, resignation, in Baltimore.
removal or the expiration of his term of office as aforesaid, all his power and authority to collect state taxes shall cease and determine, and all bills for state taxes then in arrear, and the books and papers relating thereto shall be delivered by him to his successor in the office of collector of state taxes in said city; who shall proceed to collect the same, and shall have all the power and authority to enforce the payment thereof, which are now conferred by law, for the collection of other state taxes placed in his hands for collection, shall account for said arrears, and deposit daily his collections thereof in the same manner as is now provided by law with reference to other state taxes placed in his hands for collection, and no pending suit or other pro- Suits not to ceeding instituted by any collector of state taxes in the abate. city of Baltimore shall abate by reason of his death, resignation, removal or the expiration of his term of office as aforesaid, but all such suits or other proceedings shall be entered to the use of his successor in said office, who shall conduct such suits or other proceedings as if the same had been originally commenced in his own name.

Approved and in force March 2, 1870.

1870, c. 216 also repeals section 49 in so far as the same relates to Prince George's county.